Kerala Gazette No. 14 dated 3rd April 1979.

PART III

Proceedings of the Land Board, Kerala

No. LB (F) A5-14947/79. 9th March 1979

Sub:—K.L.R. Act—Rules for the accounting of amounts received and paid by the Land Tribunals—Amendments to Rule 3 (a) (iii) issued.

Read:—Land Board's Proceedings No. LB (F) A5-74097/76 dated 20-11-1976.

In the reference read above, rule 3 (a) (iii) has been amended.

As per the existing system a notice in form No. 7 is to be issued to the person (other than a private Trust or an endowment or a minor or a person suffering from any legal disability or a limited owner) and if such person, after the receipt of the notice, does not turn up to receive payment within the time specified, the amount including M.O. commission shall be sent by M O. The maximum amount that can be sent by M.O. is Rs. 1000 including M O. commission.

In order to speed up the payment, by M O., the Land Board examined this point and the rules under 3 (a) (iii) are further amended as follows:—

For the existing rule 3 (a) (iii) and the provisos thereunder the following shall be substituted

(iii) (a) If the total amount payable by the Land Tribunal, to any person, other than a private Trust or an endowment or a minor or a person suffering from any legal disability or a limited owner is below Rs. 200 the same may be paid to the person by M.O. at Government cost without the issue of a notice in Form 7.

Note:—

The cost of M.O. form and M.O. commission shall be met from office expenses

(b) If however the amount payable by the Land Tribunal to the person, other than a private Trust or an endowment or a minor or a person suffering from any legal disability or a limited owner, exceeds Rs. 200 but is below Rs. 1000 the Land Tribunal may send the amount by M.O., if the person to whom the amount is due makes a written request accompanied by the necessary payment schedule for making such payment by M.O. at this cost or if such person after receipt of a notice in Form No. 7 does not turn up to receive payment within the time specified in the notice.

Provided however that such amount shall not be sent by M.O. if the notice has not been personally acknowledged by the person to whom the notice is sent.
